Academic Integrity - A Bruin's Code of Conduct:

UCLA is a community of scholars committed to the values of integrity. In this community, all members including faculty, staff, and students alike are responsible for maintaining the highest standards of academic honesty and quality of academic work. As a student and member of the UCLA community, you are expected to demonstrate integrity in all of your academic endeavors. When accusations of academic dishonesty occur, the Office of the Dean of Students investigates and adjudicates suspected violations of this student code. Unacceptable behavior include cheating, fabrication or falsification, plagiarism, multiple submissions without instructor permission, using unauthorized study aids, facilitating academic misconduct, coercion regarding grading or evaluation of coursework, or collaboration not authorized by the instructor. Please review our campus' policy on academic integrity in the UCLA Student Conduct Code: <http://www.deanofstudents.ucla.edu/Student-Conduct-Code>

If you engage in these types of unacceptable behaviors in our course, then you will receive a zero as your score for that assignment. If you are caught cheating on an exam, then you will receive a score of zero for the entire exam. These allegations will be referred to the Office of the Dean of Students and can lead to formal disciplinary proceedings. Being found responsible for violations of academic integrity can result in disciplinary actions such as the loss of course credit for an entire term, suspension for several terms, or dismissal from the University. Such negative marks on your academic record may become a major obstacle to admission to graduate, medical, or professional school.

We cannot make exceptions to our campus' policy on academic integrity, and as we hopefully have communicated effectively here, penalties for violations of this policy are harsh. Please do not believe it if you hear that "everyone does it". The truth is, you usually don't hear about imposed disciplinary actions because they are kept confidential. So our advice, just don't do it! Let's embrace what it means to be a true Bruin and together be committed to the values of integrity.

By submitting my assignments and exams for grading in this course, I acknowledge the above mentioned terms of the UCLA Student Code of Conduct, declare that my work will be solely my own, and that I will not communicate with anyone other than the instructor and proctors in any way during the exams.
